Board of Distinction

For years, TSBA has offered programs to recognize individual school board member accomplishments. It's also important to recognize outstanding performance by a school board as a whole. TSBA's Board of Distinction program recognizes boards for their work. School boards that seek this designation must meet specified requirements in four key areas: planning, policy, promotion and board development. Upon completion of the items on the Board of Distinction checklist, they may choose to purchase a plaque, designating the board as a Board of Distinction. Board of Distinction status is for two years, after which time the board may reapply for continued status.

Boardsmanship Awards

To encourage professional growth of school board members, TSBA offers certified board member awards and a Master Board Member award to board members who invest their time and effort into becoming more informed and more effective school board members. The award is given for participation in activities outside of local school board obligations. There are five levels of recognition, and Levels I through IV are recognized during Fall District Meetings and those receiving Level V, Master Board Member, are recognized at the annual convention.

Quarter Century Club

The Quarter Century Club recognizes those school board members having served twenty-five (25) years on their local board of education. These individuals shall receive honorary life membership in the Tennessee School Boards Association. This award is presented at the annual convention.

Scholars Circle

The Scholar's Circle recognizes those school board members having attained 900 or more boardsmanship points in the TSBA Boardsmanship Award Program. This award is presented at the annual convention.

School Board of the Year

Each year TSBA honors a school board for excellent service. The superintendent, school administrator(s), board secretary, parent-teacher association or organization, a member of the board-appointed committee, may make nominations. This award is presented at the annual convention.
